

PEER EDITING WORKSHEET: Exemplification

1. What strategy does the writer use in the essay's introduction? Would another strategy be more effective?
2. What is the essay's thesis? Does it make a point that the rest of the essay will support with examples?
3. What specific points do the body paragraphs make?
4. Does the writer use one example or several to illustrate each point? Should the writer use more examples? Fewer? Explain.
5. Does the writer use a sufficient range of examples? Are they explained in enough depth?
6. Do the examples add interest? How persuasive are they? List a few other examples that might be more persuasive.
7. What transitional words and phrases does the writer use to introduce examples? What other transitional words and phrases should be added? Where?
8. In what order are the examples presented? Would another order be more effective? Explain.
9. Has the writer used a series of three or more examples in a single sentence? If so, are these examples separated by commas?
10. What strategy does the writer use in the conclusion? What other strategy could be used?
